Our Grandmother

To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, a time to die; and time to plant, and time pluck up that which is planned: a time to kill, a time to heal: a time to break down and a time to buildup a time to weep, and a time to laugh: time mourn, a time to dance a time to cast away stones, and a time to laugh: a time to gather stone together: a time to embrace.

A Pslam of David

23 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restored my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his names sake.
Yea, though walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will far no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or set quietly in a chair
Perhaps you a plant. if so. we saw it there
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say
Perhaps you were not here at all. just thought of us today
Whatever you did to console our hearts
We thank you so much. whatever the part
